Image consent form

Reledev and the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) may photograph, video and/or interview you. The photo, video or quotes would be used for publicly available promotional materials, for example annual reports, brochures, media releases, newspaper articles, training products, website material and television broadcasts.

In addition, DIAC sometimes receives requests from other Commonwealth government agencies to use this kind of material, which might include your image or comments made during an interview. DIAC will not collect, use or disclose this material, unless you agree. If you do agree, please refer to the consent form below.

Reledev and the Department requests your consent to taking your photograph, interviewing you, publishing this material and/or disclosing it to other agencies for publication by them. Please note:

- you provide your consent by signing the consent form where relevant
- you do not have to consent to all or any of the options on the consent form; and
- there will be no consequences for you if you do not consent.

I have read and understood the above information.
